THEME:
NOTES TO ANCIENT GREEK TIMELINE

Editor's Message

Our next meeting is Wednesday, NOVEMBER 2ND, 2016 AT 7 P.M. (DOORS OPEN 6 P.M.)! Mike Hollingshead will present the LNS PPT "Notes to Ancient Greek Timeline, 30 images; 2014." Ancient is a vast area of coin collection, so this will zero in on only a section.

Our wishes to Mel Brown for a speedy recovery. This fall is likely the first meetings of SWCS and WCS that Mel has not attended in years. Mel is dearly missed! We would like to extend our appreciation to Ernie and Linda Blair for looking after the refreshments in our good buddy Mel's absence! We have been happy to see a pair of Zmijas and a Cresswell SWCS members (father, son, and son-in-law) out for several meetings. We are hoping to see Bob Zmija out again for our November meeting, so we can help him celebrate his 95th Birthday (which is coming up on Nov. 21, as Bob was born in 1921). Who knows, maybe there will be cake or something!!! We were pleased the day of our fall show to sign up Jeff Fournier as our newest SWCS member! If you read the recent edition of the CCN, you know Jeff was very successful at the Toronto Expo Educational Symposium held Oct. 1st, when Jeff presented "Setting Collecting On Fire" — a fun-filled workshop designed for adults and kids to set kids imaginations on FIRE in encouraging them to take up coin collecting. Welcome Jeff!

Remember to promote our November 12th FREE Education Symposium on the Coin Collecting Hobby. The flyer has been updated to a new pre-registration deadline, and to share that each attendee will receive a Bank of Canada One Dollar bank note along with a coin or two. Our speakers include Chris Boyer, Ben Dettweiler, Lisa McPherson, Mike Hollingshead and our symposium organizer Scott Douglas. The legion's famous food counter will be opened for business over lunch.

There are many positive changes to the Ontario Numismatic Convention running Friday, April 21 through to and including April 23, 2017. For example the main registration kit has dropped back to $25, and the banquet tickets have been reduced to $35 (Scott Hopkins is the Keynote Speaker), and the ONA promises a big increase in the number of banquet door prizes. Scott Douglas is organizing another terrific Educational Symposium (for a couple of examples Ron Cheek is speaking on Canadian Medals and Steve Bell on grading Canadian bank notes). Once again there will be fun kids events too! This year we have new exhibit categories, and updated rules. At the convention there will be additional specialty clubs meetings, and we are currently negotiating to return to having an auction. Registrations are now available, watch ONA website for more convention updates at http://www.the-ona.ca/. This is also an election year, so ensure you have submitted your ONA nomination form! Register now to qualify for the early bird prize draw!

Bring along a friend or two to our next meeting, share the FUN and LAUGHTER!!

THE CRANSTON NOVELTY COMPANY

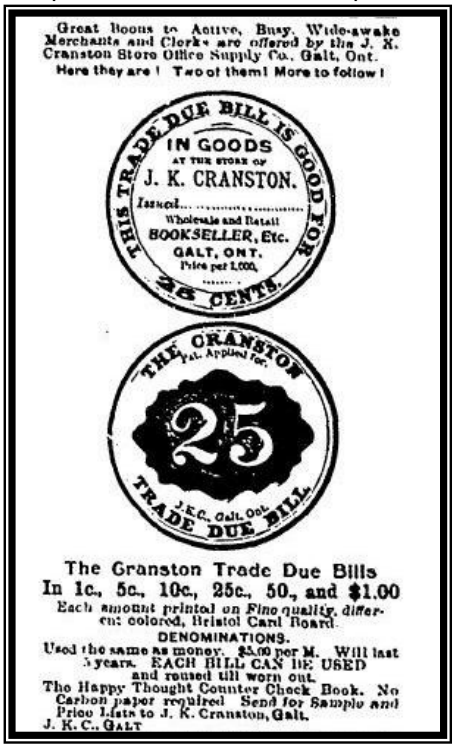
[DYK #084—reprinted from SWCS November 2016 Wellington Circular with consent of club and author]

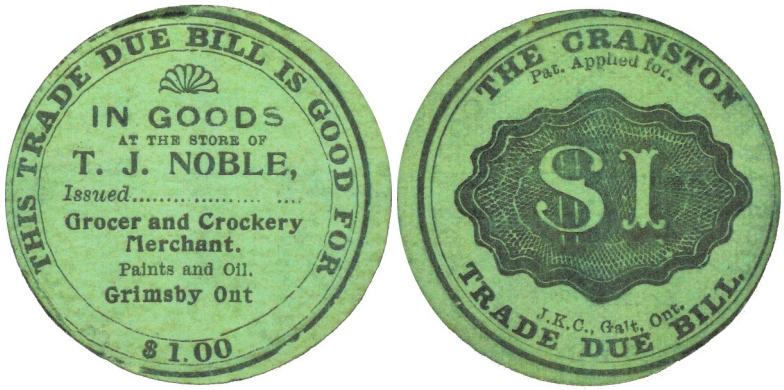
DID YOU KNOW ?

..... that James K. Cranston of the Cranston Novelty Company is credited with the invention of the trade due bill in Canada?

James Kersel Cranston was born August 14, 1856, on the family farm just five and a half miles from the town of Galt, Ontario. His first working situation came at age 15 as a junior clerk in the bookstore of A.L. Middlemiss of Port Hope, Ontario. After four years, Middlemiss sold out and Cranston took a similar position with Fleming & Co., of Galt. Cranston remained with Fleming until October 1880 when, at age 24, he partnered with H. Dickinson to purchase the stock of Woodstock, Ontario, bookseller F. Nesbitt & Co. The new firm was called Dickinson & Cranston and was doing very well until a disastrous fire struck a blow on November 24, 1880, while the store was preparing for a large Christmas trade.[1] Although not everything was lost, the damage to merchandise was $20,000. While the two men set about selling what stock they had left, their creditors agreed to accept 66⅔cents on the dollar. When most of the remaining stock had been sold, both men found they could pay the debt at 100 cents on the dollar and notified their creditors of this fact. It was this single act of honesty that would stand both men in good stead for the rest of their working lives. This gesture was so unusual it was still being spoken of more than ten years later and was never forgotten by wholesalers. In January of 1885, with all debts paid up, Dickinson & Cranston dissolved. Dickinson remained in Woodstock and Cranston purchased the stock of Galt bookseller and stationer C. W. Youmans. Cranston's new business was located in Young's Block at 55 Main Street in Galt. For the next seven years Cranston built a business of good reputation but found it to be a trying experience.

Sometime in 1892 Cranston came up with his most popular merchandising scheme the "Cranston Trade Due Bill." First advertised in November of 1892, these due bills were made of coloured Bristol board and warned "Pat. Applied for J.K.C., Galt, Ont."[2] In 1955, Cranston's grandson reminisced that his father had told him that the politicians had outlawed the use of the aluminum due bills which Cranston would later market successfully; however, I am sure he was referring to these Bristol board scrip pieces. Canadian patent law does not allow for a patent to be issued for printed matter with reference to a method of doing business. A patent cannot be obtained on a mere idea or suggestion. However, while waiting for patent approval, and for a $20 fee, the applicant may market his or her invention with the appropriate "Patent Applied For" protection statement. After one year from application, if a patent is not granted the applicant may no longer sell the invention under "Patent Applied For" protection. In Cranston's case, a patent was not issued, but the existing Bristol board due bills in circulation were allowed to continue in use.





An example of The Cranston Trade Due Bill made of Bristol board.

James Cranston had worked hard in the book and stationery business all his life. The Trade Due Bill system seemed to draw enough attention that Cranston put out ads to find a buyer for his book business in 1893. Mr J W Hamly of Campbellford, Ontario initially came forward and an announcement was made to the people of Galt that Cranston was 'selling out' and moving to Toronto. It is unclear exactly what happened but Mr Hamly had some financial difficulties which prevented the sale from taking place. Cranston would remain in Galt until 1905 when he was finally able to sell his business and move to 123 Bay St., Toronto, Ontario.

Due Bill Coins.

Elsewhere will be found an advertisement of Mr. J. K. Cranston, Galt, who has produced a series of valuable aluminum and brass checks for bakers, milkmen and other traders. During the last session of Parliament an act was passed to govern or prohibit the use of the ordinary pasteboard bread and milk checks, thus making it compulsory to use either metal checks or paper tickets, the last-named of which must not be removed from the homes. This act was passed in order to lessen the danger of carrying contagious and infectious diseases from house to house. Paper tickets, as is well known, will and do carry disease germs, and are the direct cause of many epidemics. The metal check can be sterilized and used again, whereas the pasteboard check cannot.

Advertisements found in trade journals for Cranston's checks

Examples of J K Cranston's advertising tokens. Most of Cranston's tokens were issued between 1901 and 1905 although a few were issued from his Toronto business from 1905 to around 1910.

Many of Cranston's advertising pieces had a popular theme of the time such as celebrating the end of the Boer War, Christmas or the International Saengerfest celebrated in many German communities.

Club Report & News reported by Mike Hollingshead, John Semedo, and Scott Douglas (photos by Judy Blackman)

Here's SWCS Oct. 5th Draws and Accolades:

We had 29 present including guests.

The Membership Draw: The draw was expanded by kind donations by Judy Blackman, two dinosaur coins including a bimetallic. The regular member draw was won by Clive Cresswell again (he's been on a roll for a few meetings now!) who won the $5. November's draw will revert to $5! Dinosaur collector coins were won by Adrian Zmija and Ray Zoethout. About seven names were selected that were not in attendance, it might have been YOU who won if you had been in attendance. Congratulations Clive, Adrian and Ray!

King Arthur's Treasure: The 110 item equivalent was won by Mike Hollingshead. Don't forget to bring five surplus coins, tokens or whatever (or pay $1 to play).

Daytona Draw: Scott Douglas asked Aubyn Blackman to draw the ticket, and his wife Judy Blackman said "but then he won't draw my ticket like the other months when you had his draw". Lo and behold, Aubyn drew Judy's ticket for the first time since the draw was introduced. Judy selected envelope #2 which Scott put up for auction, quickly moving from an opening bid of $20 to a final bid by Ray Zoethout of $23. Judy said she wasn't feel lucky enough to have picked the $95 prize envelope, so she accepted the $23 from Ray and Ray went home with a copy of the very collectible hardcover Golden Anniversary The Charlton Standards 1952-2002 and a 1999 Uncirculated Mint Set, for a combined prize value of at least $34 and more likely $54. Be sure to buy tickets each meeting, remember the $95 prize envelope is still in play until won, and if not won as we get closer to our April 20th Anniversary, there may be a second large prize introduced!!

Other News and Accolades:

Many thanks to SWCS Member Robin Kenny of Guelph Coin Auctions for bringing in two large boxes of very fresh and yummy Tim Horton's donuts to thank the club for allowing him to conduct his auction at the legion the day of our show. Robin and Mike Hollingshead described the success of the day, and Mike explained how we are looking at additional ways to drive even more "buying" traffic through the doors.

At the end of our show, Brian Bell of Geoffrey Bell Auctions / The Coin Cabinet drew the Gold Coin ticket, and the lucky winner was Lori Holman of Fergus.

Nov. 12, Mike is kindly giving our Youth Director Peter H-D a tour of U of G Research Department. Thanks Mike!

Club Report & News reported by Mike Hollingshead, John Semedo, and Scott Douglas

Black Monday, October 19, 1987

As this was our October meeting, Scott Douglas shared the events and how they unfolded on the TSE floor on Black Monday (29 yrs ago). He explained the lessons learnt and the precautions set up after this event, to avoid a repeat in the future, and what effectiveness they have had. Yes, the newspaper clipping and mounted photo Scott is holding are of Scott on that eventful day.

The Dow Jones industrial average lost more than 22.6% of its value that day. A record that still holds true to this day. It lost 508 points, 4 times the previous record. World markets followed suit. Such a point drop might not seem so large now, with stock prices much higher, but in percentage terms it would be equivalent to a plunge of more than 3,000 points in today's Dow. U.S. stocks had also sagged 9 per cent the preceding week, further unnerving investors who had lost nearly a third of their nest eggs in almost the blink of an eye. At the time, the drop had an eerie resemblance to the beginning of the Great Depression. The stock market panic of October and November, 1929, was the opening act of the Dirty Thirties, and here was a one-day drop that exceeded even the worst daily decline back then. But markets like to confound people, and Black Monday was no exception. Stocks began recovering shortly after, and markets roared ahead for more than a decade before finally suffering another major blowout when technology shares cratered in early 2000.

Here's some more flashbacks of Scott on the TSE trading floor (old building and new building):

ANDREW STAWICKI / TORONTO STAR

MARKET SURGE: Toronto Stock Exchange traders Scott Douglas, left, and Marty Wittenbols check prices yesterday as markets continued to soar both here and in New York in response to interest rate cuts.

Scott Douglas was born in Toronto, Ontario in 1952 and after completing his education began work on the trading floor of the Toronto Stock Exchange in 1972. Later, he became a professional securities attorney and is presently a market maker for Toronto Stock Exchange list securities.

In addition to being President of SWCS, Scott is currently the President of the Canadian Numismatic Research Society (CNRS), and is a Fellow of the Royal Canadian Numismatic Association (RCNA), the Ontario Numismatic Association (ONA) and CNRS. Scott is also the Grand Knights of The St. Eligius Brotherhood of Numismatists. He sits on the Board for the Canadian Association For Numismatic Education (CAFNE) and the J. Douglas Ferguson Foundation (JDFF). Scott is an international speaker having presented in other countries (such as New Zealand and U.S.A.). He has written numerous well-researched articles on numismatics which have been published in various club and association journals and newsletters. Scott is the Chairperson for both the RCNA and ONA Educational Symposiums, and sits on the ONA 2017 Convention Committee.

Scott is a just around fun, caring, and very informed guy!

Club Report & News reported by Mike Hollingshead, John Semedo, and Scott Douglas

Education Programs:

Our October presentation by Judy Blackman featured "Dinosaurs on Coins, Tokens and Fantasy Notes" which focused mainly on the last 20 years but did include a Drumheller 50 cent trade coin from 1963. Many innovative minting processes are featured in the collection which causes the images of the dinosaurs to glow in the dark or appear 3-dimensional. Many countries were featured and many different mints from around the planet. The talk was illustrated by PowerPoint and a full display case of samples (many of which Judy circulated around the room to give everybody a closer look). Discussions included which coins were likely to appreciate in value and the relationship between mintage figures and how well coins retained or grew in value for various mints. Judy also provided a colourized handout to attendees on the history and science of dinosaur fossil discovery in Canada. As usual for a Judy presentation, it was both off-the-wall and well-researched!!! Thank you Judy for the enlightening talk!

The prizes donated for our attendance draw were:

A Cdn. 2013 Tylosaurus Pembinensis Dinosaur 25 Cents Crown-Size Colourized Twenty-Five Cent Speciment with Photoluminescent Technology (so flows in the dark to bring out the skelton).

A Republica Arabe Saharaui Democratica 2013 Brilliant Uncirculated 1,000 Pesetas Dinosaur—Stegasaurus coin.

Upcoming 2016 meetings / events:

- Wed., Nov. 2nd: LNS PPT "Notes to Ancient Greek Timeline, 30 images; 2014" (Mike Hollingshead)
- Sat., Nov. 12th (Legion): SWCS is hosting a full-day Public Seminar to draw new people (of all ages) to the coin collecting hobby
- Wed., Dec. 4th (Food Drive Night): another LNS presentation "Coinage of the Kingdom of Hawaii" (Scott Douglas) and presentation to the Rockwood Food Bank.
- Wed., March 8th, 2017: topic and speaker to be determine (members encouraged to volunteer to present)
- Wed., April 25th, 2017 – our official 20th Anniversary DINNER (fun, laughter and some surprises included) — this will be pre-registration so we have an accurate head count (members and pre-invited guests, may bring their spouses / mate along). At our Sept. meeting, Scott confirmed there will be another book and an anniversary medal coming in 2017 for our 20th celebration as well!
- Wed. May 3rd, 2017—Freddy Barsoum will present Egyptian Coins, Banknotes, and Stamps (with Pyramids and Great Sphinx on them)

Monthly Auction:

Our October Auction faced a tough crowd, even items with reserves at or below face value were passed. Most lots were 50-60% below trends. Nearly all RCM NLT and Circulating lots were ignored! Foreign, notes and tokens were well received. New mintages levels by the RCM are impacting the marketability, such as 300,000 for a new $20 for $20 instead of 30,000. Over-flooding the market with new RCM releases was also a concern. Folks expressed they would prefer new circulating coinage over all the commemoratives and the NLT. Look for more variety and hot deals in our November auction, further in this issue. Thank you to our October funny and terrific auctioneer Mike Hollingshead, and his auction runners the 2 Peters, Peter Horne deus and Peter Becker.

The SWCS commission charged to consignors: Sold for under $20, auction fee is 25 cents and items sold for over $20 fee is $1. Pretty simple. No buyers premium, no sales tax. Bring your items to consign to the meeting or contact Lowell Wierstra at ljwierstra@rogers.com or call 519-824-6534! Please use the new consignment form. We are now accepting auction items for May 2017.
